Description

I found an exception when I've tried to save a new project (log file attached) . On this project I've preform operations like that:

  - Load dxf layers on views
  - Export dxf layers to shape
  - Create new shape layers
    - 2 string fields
    - geom surface
  - Editing the new shape:
    - start editing
    - insert 4 squares
    - finish editing

After that, on save-project action, gvSIG throws an DynObject-validation exception related to a SHPNewStoreParameters. There was no way to save project.

I've tried to reproduce it creating a new project and redo the creating steps described previously, but gvSIG worked as expected.

I think this is the same as #1936 (already fixed). Try BN > 2066 and it should work.
