Hi, I've trying to reproduce that bug but I couldn't. I've create a new chart, saving the project and loading it again. I've also change the data shown on the chart and it's still working

I need more information. build version and platform you're getting this error, steps you're following and, if it's possible, the log file.

#4 - 09/30/2014 06:12 AM - Mario Carrera

- File gvSIG.log added

I've tried to reproduce it. First time it worked good, but when I've renamed the chart document from the project manager it hasn't been opened after that, trying it several times.

Then I've created a new chart document and both documents have been opened again.

It has been on the BN2247 in Ubuntu 14.04.

I attach the log file.

En la 2260 he probado y funciona bien, también renombrando el gráfico.
Lo doy por cerrado.
