Description

Hi,

I've just installed gvSIG and SEXTANTE is not loading because of a duplicated class (see log). There is also another error at the end of the loading regarding a missing plugin.

Right, I have the same problem.

It seems there was a problem making the binaries because the contents of libMath.jar and gvSIGSpecificAlgs.jar are wrong.

I close the bug because 1410 is a ghost distribution :P. It was built only as a demo of the installer. I have the error identified.

Thanks for report it.
